Retiree Discussion Questions

Feedback from the PMEA Retired Member Guest Panel

1. How have you found happiness and success in retirement?
2. What “new” hobbies, volunteer projects, trips, family connections, and encore careers have you been exploring?
3. What did you do to reinvent yourself and how did you satisfy those “big three” goals of post-full-time employment: finding purpose, structure, and community?
4. How did you navigate those early phases of retirement? imagination, anticipation, liberation, etc.
5. What were some of the transitional “ups and downs” you experienced and how did you cope with them?
6. What are you still doing in music and education?

The Myths of Retirement

- You retire FROM something.
- It's an easy transition.
- It takes little time to prepare.
- It's completely different from anything you're doing now.
- The decision is based almost entirely about the money.
- It's a very public decision; once you announce your intentions, there's no looking back! It's just time to “party hearty” with your colleagues.
- Once you retire, you won't need PMEA or NAfME.

Definitions of Retirement

Old

"Seclusion from the world, privacy, withdrawal, the act of going away, retreating, or disappearing."

– Webster and other online dictionaries

"It's time to retire the term retirement..."

New

- "The 'new retirement' is not an ending, it's a new beginning, the start of a new life journey of vastly expanded proportion."
- "Retirement now is mostly about change. And it may not look all that different from what immediately precedes it."
- "Reinventing yourself for the life you've always wanted."
- "...renewment, aspiration, financial independence, reirement, rest-of-life, second beginnings, financial freedom, and new chapter."

A "Retiring" Ben Franklin...

"Having worked as a successful shopkeeper with a keen eye for investments, Franklin had earned his leisure, but rather than cultivate the fine arts of indolence, retirement, he said, was 'time for doing something useful.' Hence, the many activities of his retirement were: scientist, statesman, and sage, as well as one-man civic society for the city of Philadelphia. His post-employment accomplishments earned him the sobriquet of 'The First American' in his own lifetime, and yet, for succeeding generations, the endeavor that was considered his most 'useful' was the working life he left behind when he embarked on a life of leisure...."

Retiree Types

“The Good,” “The Very Good,” and “The Ugly!”

- Good: People who do not see themselves as retired, just leaving a full-time job of public school music teaching, and moving on to new goals, employment, and/or volunteer work.
- Very Good: People who know they are retired, are relieved from the stress of day-to-day employment, and now feel ready to fill and complete new “bucket lists,” spend more time with family, travel, and hobbies, and perhaps even explore several new areas/levels/skills in music and education.
- Ugly: People who know they are retired, are happy to leave the profession, and want nothing to do with any part of music education, PMEA or NAfME.

What Retirement 101 Retiree Stories and Strategies

10

Encore Careers

“The Good” (full-time) or “The Very Good...” (part-time)
(besides babysitting and volunteer work...)

1. Higher Education (music education methods, supervision of students teachers, etc.)
2. Music Industry (instrumental rental, repairs, merchandizing, etc.)
3. Travel (tour leader, festival organizer, etc.)

What Retirement 101 Retiree Stories and Strategies

11

“Many people want to continue to work. In fact, 72% of pre-retirees, age 50 and older, say they want to keep working after they retire, according to a recent survey sponsored by Merrill Lynch in partnership with Age Wave. Almost half (47%) of current retirees either are working, have worked, or plan to work in retirement, the survey found.”

Job departures

Voluntary	Involuntary
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Elective resignation • Early or full retirement • Sabbatical/leave of absence • Vacation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Forced retirement • Furlough/layoff • Suspension/termination • Re-assignment/displacement • Downsizing of position or program • Elimination of position or program

Why © 2025 Paul K. Fox 18 Retirement 101

18

Involuntary transfers or cuts

Unhappy Pathways... Scenarios of "Downsized and Out!"

- Music and/or staff are eliminated from the curriculum or building in which you teach.
- You feel unappreciated, unsupported, devalued, or ignored as a professional.
- You conclude you must retire early to avoid losing existing contractual benefits.
- The new head coach of the sport in which you have assisted for many years fires you to bring in his "cronies."
- While voluntarily retiring from the full-time "day" job, you hope to continue serving in the capacity as assistant director (marching band, musical, etc.) in an after-school position, but you are not considered for the re-assignment nor invited to return... In spite of your longtime service, you are told "your services are no longer required."

Stages of grief and loss

Coping with being "kicked to the curb"

1. Denial (disbelief, numbness, shock)
2. Bargaining (preoccupation with "what could have been," guilt, remorse)
3. Depression (sadness, loneliness, emptiness, isolation, self-pity)
4. Anger (feelings of helplessness, abandonment)
5. Acceptance (emotional resolution, healing)

Same stages as the breakup of a marriage or sudden loss of a loved one!

What is PTSD?

What does Post Traumatic Stress Disorder feel like?

- It's never ever feeling safe.
- It's never taking a full breath of air in your lungs.
- It's being afraid to close your eyes.
- It's having your gut instincts scream at you to RUN every time someone looks at you.
- It's spending most of your time alone because you are terrified of other human beings, sometimes even your friends.
- It's feeling flawed, bad, marked, stained.
- It's like being in prison.

You cannot self-diagnose PTSD.

If you are suddenly having trouble sleeping, difficulty with relationships, or find yourself feeling significantly depressed or lethargic, visit your health care professional.

Are you psyched for it?

Are you psychologically prepared to retire?

1. How important is your job when it comes to getting a sense of life satisfaction?
2. How many non-work activities do you have that give you a sense of purpose?
3. How do you imagine your life to be once you stop working?
4. How do you think retirement will affect your relationship with family and friends?
5. How much energy for work do you have these days?

29

Normal “speed bumps”

Inferiority complex: Loss of professional identity and feelings of negative self-worth defined by the old job

- Return of your ID badge and keys
- Removal of your web presence, teacher pages, and school e-mail access
- Fewer opportunities for professional interactions and collegial community

Related “inner voice” questions:

- “No one remembers who I am”
- “Will I be forgotten after I leave? Did I make a difference?”
- “Stripped of my work, job title, and paycheck, who am I?”
- “When all of these are gone, what is left?”

When © 2025 Paul K. Fox Retirement 101

30

Normal “speed bumps”

Delusions of grandeur:

- “I’ll help in the hiring/training of my replacement.”
- “That’s not how it is done...”

No, your help is not needed nor wanted. Learn how to say goodbye and stay away.

Denial:

- “I’m not retired!”

You are retired if PSERS and your mommy say so!

When © 2025 Paul K. Fox Retirement 101

31

Normal “speed bumps”

“It’s not your sandbox” after you retire:

- Becoming an “efficiency expert” for other jobs/programs/projects.
- Being unwilling to surrender yourself from always being “an agent of change.”

No, you need not manage other people’s “sandboxes!”

As a retiree, you level of frustration may increase if you think you need to continue the core values of “moral professionalism” and assess, “monitor and adjust,” and seek new practices or approaches to solve problems.

Get over it! Your opinion may not be wanted or needed!

When © 2025 Paul K. Fox Retirement 101

32

The “big decision” and privacy

1. “How or when” you announce your departure is only partially up to you.
2. You are compelled to notify administration (“the cat is out of the bag”)
3. You may desire to fade away from the landscape, and go without fanfare or festivities.
4. Your colleagues will want to celebrate your many years of meritorious service
5. “Let the parties begin” – I had one in each building and the last day of school.
6. Tell your students as soon as you can (don't let them hear it from via the “rumor mill!”)
7. No matter how you perceive your popularity with the kids: 30% of them will be upset at your leaving, 30% of them will be happy or at least interested in someone new taking over your position, and 40% will be ambivalent.

Archiving your “first career”

1. Define your legacy “for posterity.”
2. Reflect on and frame your career in music education.
3. For what do you want to be remembered? What was most important to you?
4. Now, what's next in your future... new definitions, new directions?

35

Happy pathways...

- Continuers stay connected with past skills and activities, but modify them to fit retirement, such as through volunteering or part-time work in their former field.
- Adventurers start new activities or learn new skills not related to their past work, such as learning to play the piano (?) or taking on an entirely new job.
- Searchers learn by trial and error as they look for a niche; they have yet to find their identity in retirement.
- Easy gliders enjoy unscheduled time and like their daily schedule “to go with the flow.”
- Involved spectators maintain an interest in their previous field of work but assume different roles, such as a lobbyist who becomes a news junkie.
- Retreaters become depressed, retreat from life, and give up on finding a new path – the only negative direction in these classifications.

Enneagram

Your Top Three Types are 3, 2 and 1.

Read the descriptions of each type below to discover YOUR type!

Type 3: The Achiever

Achievers are energetic, optimistic, self-assured, and goal oriented.

How to Get Along with Me

Leave me alone when I am doing my work.
Give me honest, but not unduly critical or judgmental, feedback.
Help me keep my environment harmonious and peaceful.
Don't burden me with negative emotions.
Tell me you like being around me.
Tell me when you're proud of me or my accomplishments.

What I Like About Being a Three

Being optimistic, friendly, and upbeat.
Providing well for my family.
Being able to recover quickly from setbacks and to charge ahead to the next challenge.
Staying informed, knowing what's going on.
Being competent and able to get things to work efficiently.
Being able to motivate people.

What's Hard About Being a Three

Having to put up with inefficiency and incompetence.
The fear of not being – or of not being seen as – successful.
Comparing myself to people who do things better.
Struggling to hang on to my success.
Putting on "facades" in order to impress people.
Always being "on." It's exhausting.

Retirement UTOPIA

The QUEST for RETIREMENT UTOPIA
How to find the retirement spot that's right for you
DAVE HUGHES

It's fun to dream about where you'll retire. Without a job tying you down, why not relocate to a place more to your liking? Perhaps you want to live someplace warmer, closer to the water, with the pace of life is slower. Maybe you want to stretch your retirement dollars by living where the cost-of-living or taxes are lower. You might even be thinking of retiring in another country or spending your retirement in an RV or on a houseboat.

With so much to consider, choosing the place that's right for you can become overwhelming.

The Quest for Retirement Utopia will cover all the possibilities and help you cut through all the daunting and often conflicting information.

Mattering

Do I feel "needed" and know I "make a difference" to others?

"It has been suggested that one problem of retirement is that one no longer matters; others no longer depend on us..."

The reward of retirement, involving a surcease from labor, can be the punishment of not mattering. Existence loses its point and savor when one no longer makes a difference."

2. Decide when you want to retire. Estimate as accurately as possible what your economic situation will be after you retire.
3. Decide where you want to live after you retire.
4. Set some goals regarding how you want to spend your retirement time. Focus on your talents and abilities instead of looking at the handicaps that may come with the aging process.
5. Be prepared for change and learn to handle it positively.
6. Be sure your intentions are clearly stated in writing (wills, power of attorneys, living wills, etc.)

Time

1. Synchronize your calendar(s) and appointments with your spouse.
2. Set aside at least 30-45 minutes a day for sustained physical activity.
3. Avoid watching more than two hours of TV per day.
4. Do something every day that will expand your mind, stimulate your intellect, or increase your curiosity quotient.
5. Hobbies that focus on personal self-expression or other creative pursuits are best enjoyed in the morning when you are fresh.
6. Beware of the "caregiver's anchor" and other expectations on the use of your time.
7. Get enough sleep.

Volunteering – giving back

What does it mean to be eleemosynary?
Adjective... defined as "generous, charitable, gratuitous, or philanthropic"

"With a frequently untapped wealth of competencies and experiences, older people have much to give. This fact, coupled with fewer requirements for their time, gives them unique opportunity to assume special kinds of helping roles."

Mary Baird Carlsen – Meaning-Making: Therapeutic Processes in Adult Development, 1988

"Our increased longevity and generally better health has opened our eyes to new and increased opportunities to contribute to the betterment of society through civic, social, and economic engagement in activities we believe in."

Jo Ann Jenkins, CEO of AARP – Disrupt Aging, 2016

Rekindling your expressiveness

- Why did you go into music and education in the first place?
- What have you always wanted to explore... play... sing... compose... record... conduct... create?
- When will you finish your own "Mr. Holland's Opus" and have it performed and recorded?
- When are you going to publish your next song, article, book, warm-ups, instrumental method, essays on pedagogy, musical, drumline feature or halftime show... or write your personal memoirs?
- When do you plan to join a community band, orchestra, chorus or theater group?

Lists of PA community bands, orchestras, choruses, & theater groups are posted on the PMEA website under focus areas/retired members - <http://www.pmea.net/retired-members/>

Additional instructions...

1. T-Minus 12 months or more: Attend one or more PSERS pension "Foundations for Your Future" program and request a retirement estimate (form PSRS-151), after which you will need to schedule the all-important "Exit Counseling Session."
2. Make an appointment with an estate planner, elder attorney, and/or financial advisor (probably all three). Bring a copy of your bank and investment statements, PSERS reports, social security, annuities, and insurance documents. You may need help in determining which PSERS "plan" to adopt. While you're at it, update your will and other legal documents.
3. Update your NAFME/PMEA online profile to include a personal email address. If you need help, please call Kelly at 888-919-7632.
4. Read, read, read... start with the PMEA Retired Members' page.
